In the final volume of Miami Guns, loose ends (and a scantily clad Yao) get tied up when Nagisa springs her ultimate trap on her unsuspecting rival. The Organization had better be prepared, because two violence prone police ladies, a mysterious lone gunman, a pair of gay lovers and a hyper intelligent alligator are a force to be reckoned with! Criminally packed with extensive translation notes, original production art, character bios, an exclusive Japanese promotional Miami Guns anime music video, and an amazing 20 minute long video interview with Miami Guns director Yoshitaka Koyama and voice actresses Megumi Toyoguchi and Yukari Tamura.
